

For your security

Basse Copette is a Holiday-Secure Partner

If you lose your credit card or mobile phone, it is important to report the loss quickly, because you will remain responsible for the use of the lost item, until you phone and inform your card issuer or your phone service provider that you are not in possession of the card or phone anymore.

Being able to act quickly, timely, and correctly while you are away from home gives you invaluable advantages. The ability to act instantly, no matter where you are, can save you time and money.

Holiday-Secure enables you to:

Act immediately and prevent fraud and criminal use if you lose your credit card or mobile phone

Quickly and easily cancel a lost credit card or block a lost mobile phone at any time from anywhere

Protect yourself and your family from identity theft and abuse of a lost credit card or mobile phone

Using Holiday-Secure is easy:

1

Save the information that is necessary to cancel your credit cards or to block your mobile phone

2

Get your information instantly, at any time from anywhere, if you lose a credit card or mobile phone
